Fall 2008

Dear Friends,

On behalf of the angels in our midst – those living and breathing, those who have gone before us, and those of the glass-stained variety – I ask you to help The Caring Collection Inc. raise $245,000 to purchase equipment to benefit cancer patients. This specific sum will bring the total raised by this all-volunteer organization to $1 million.

From 1983 to 2008, the Caring Collection Inc. has raised more than $755,000 for two pillar institutions in the region: the Geaton and JoAnn DeCesaris Cancer Institute at Anne Arundel Medical Center in Annapolis and the Sidney Kimmel Comprehensive Cancer Center at Johns Hopkins Medical Center in Baltimore. All donations have gone to purchase specific equipment: research laboratory microscopes, specialized computers and immobilization devices for radiotherapy, breast imaging devices and laryngoscopes. The equipment purchased just might save the life of someone you love--even yourself!

The all-volunteer group creates beautiful stained-glass angels in the basement studio of a residence, keeping expenses to a minimum and allowing the Caring Collection Inc. to donate 60-80 percent of its gross revenue annually to Anne Arundel Medical Center and Johns Hopkins Medical Center. Only the cost of materials is deducted from the sales.

You can help make it happen by purchasing individual gifts, corporate gifts or making tax-deductible donations! Become part of a unique group of extraordinary people who make a difference by setting an example for others. The Caring Collection studio is located in my residential studio in Annapolis. One can visit any time Monday, Tuesday or Thursday, 8 am to 5 pm. Please call for an appointment to visit Wednesday, Friday, Saturday or Sunday. Orders can be made on our secured website www.caringcollection.org.

Caring Collection Inc. art work is a gift that keeps on giving.

Sincerely,

Bobbie Burnett
